LSS of the Southwest focuses on four core program areas: Luminaria Home Care, Refugee Focus, Partners in Caring and Children Services.

I'm excited to serve on the board and to meet and interact with like-minded individuals who are interested in sharing ideas and brainstorming how to support our various agencies with best practices while incorporating the innovative strategies necessary to stay afloat in a very competitive market.

CFO/SVP Human Resources, LSS of the Southwest

Budget: $15 million

Board Term: 2015-2017

Lutheran Family Services of Virginia provides treatment foster care, adoption and community-based services for special-needs children, educational services for autistic and emotionally-disturbed children as well as day support, in-home, family care homes and group homes for adults with developmental disabilities.

I joined LFSVA in January 2013, and the 2013 conference in Scottsdale was my first. I was impressed with the financial professionals in attendance and enjoy the opportunity to contribute to the Association and to share ideas and solutions with other members.

CFO, Lutheran Family Services of Virginia

Budget: $28 million

Board Term: 2017-2019

Lutheran Social Services of the National Capital Area provides foster care, adoption, and refugee reception and placement services.

I am enthusiastic about the future programming of the LFMA Conference, and the Board's continued consideration to integrate economics, strategy, human capital management, operations, finance, accounting and technology into its learning curriculum for its members.

CFO, Lutheran Social Services of the National Capital Area

Budget: $7.5 million

Board Term: 2016-2018
